Millcreek Township Places Animal Enforcement Officer on Leave

MILLCREEK, Pa. – Effective Aug. 9, Millcreek Township’s Animal Enforcement Officer has been placed on administrative leave.

During the investigation the Millcreek Police Department will continue to address animal control calls.

Millcreek Township thanks all the residents who attended the Supervisor Meeting on Aug. 9 to voice their concerns and offer assistance. Open and honest dialogue is one of the many reasons that Millcreek is a special community.

The next Supervisor Meeting will be Aug. 23, at 5:30 p.m.

If anyone has information to provide regarding the investigation, please report it to our police department at 814-833-7777.

Additionally, Millcreek residents can contact the Board of Supervisors directly at 814-833-1111.
